PIERRE VADI
DELTA
DEC 3 – JAN 31 2009

Opening Reception Tuesday, Dec 2 2008, 6-8 PM

Image: Love lights (chaines), 2004, le Credac, Centre d'Art contemporain d'Ivry

For Immediate Release

Delta by Pierre Vadi evokes visions of a lunar landscape where thin atmosphere has vitrified and warped. Rather than finding sedimentary deposits, one discovers the traces of construction: furred acrylic sheets, scattered stone screws, and circular saws of resin. The exhibition casts an anxiety onto all progression. It positions the viewer in a space where possible pasts and futures collide.

Pierre Vadi is a Swiss artist who lives and works in Geneva. His most recent projects include Sas at le Credac, Centre d'Art contemporain d'Ivry in Ivry Sur Seine (2008); Coma at Le Spot, Centre d'art contemporain in Le Havre(2007); and Blackout with Philippe Decrauzat at Hard Hat in Geneva(2007). Recent group exhibitions include ECAL: A Success Story in Art and Design organized by John Armleder at L'Elax in Rennes and Emotional Landscapes at Kunsthalle Fri-Art in Fribourg.
