

Galleries

Top 10 Shows on the LES and Surrounding Neighborhoods This Summer

It's all happening downtown.

Sam Lewitt at Kunsthalle Basel (2016). Photo: courtesy Kunsthalle Basel.

4. "Sam Lewitt: Less Light Warm Words" at Swiss Institute (June 8—July 24, 2016)

The arts non-profit has put together Sam Lewitt's first institutional exhibition in New York. The 2012 Whitney Biennial participant has prepared an intriguing site-specific work by removing all fluorescent lights from the ceiling of the main gallery and redirected all electricity into custom-designed flexible copper heating circuits thereby reorganizing the transfer of energy within the building's existing electrical infrastructure.